Message from the Head of Department

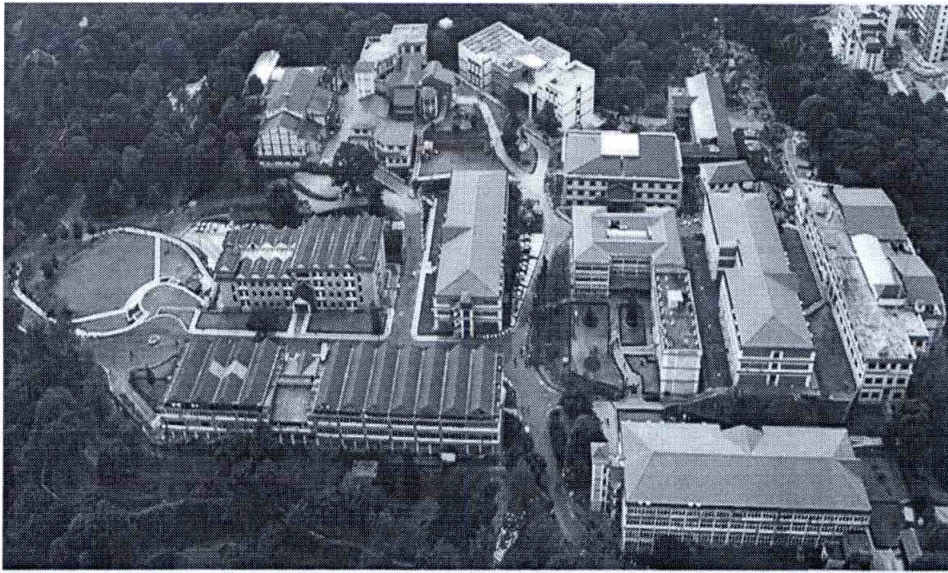

It gives me an immense pleasure to express my views on the Department of Management & Humanities being inducted as an amalgamation of experienced and young faculty members of NIT Hamirpur. With a vision to build a vibrant multicultural learning environment the Department of Management and Humanities is poised to provide the quality human resource to the industrial world. We believe that we are not just educating and training future manpower of the country but we are also fostering creativity among the students and eventually enabling them to be responsible and ethical corporate leaders of tomorrow.

The process begins by identifying and selecting the potential candidate's to our MBA program through standard admission procedure which cardinally looks into the candidate's aptitude, analytical skills and professional prowess. Our curriculum is designed in such a way that it stretches its reach to considerable breadth and depth providing students the right input to develop their minds with sharp managerial quotient. It offers an extensive learning experience through a plethora of channels, including lectures, case studies, projects, workshops, seminars and outdoor activities, which promises an overall professional development of students. Our naturally vibrant campus, state-of-the-art classrooms, auditorium and conference room, well-stacked library, well-equipped computer lab and a vibrant cafeteria make us a complete desirable place for learning and academic excellence. I am confident that a great future lies ahead of this department and have a firm belief that with the blessings and support of all associated stakeholders we will be a center of excellence in management education, research and training in the country.

Best regards,
Dr. Yogesh Gupta
